WEBB LODGE HISTORY

On March 11, 1894, Masons of Georgia were shocked by the death of Most Worshipful John S. Davidson, Grand Master of Georgia. His funeral was held in Augusta on March 13, 1894. On June 22, 1895, Webbs Lodge and Social Lodges has a joint communication to celebrate St. John's Day and had a barbecue in Hamburg, SC. On August 17, 1896, the Finance and Charity Committee had been found in neglect of their duties and a motion passed to censure them. This era was a highlight of our history as we were very active, held frequent meetings, brought in many new members, and conferred many degrees. On June 21, 1897 we received an invitation from Waynesboro Lodge to be their guests at a barbecue. We promptly accepted. History will continue next month.

Continuing Your Journey – February 11, 2023 in Tyrian Lodge #111, Warner Robins, Georgia. This will be a historic event for Masons in Georgia as we will be hosting Arturo DeHoyos, 33, GC and Dean Alban, 33. All Georgia Master Masons are invited. More to come.
